Where Success Stories of Tomorrow Begin to Take Form

For 61 years, Burdett College has been offering specialized business training to the young people of New England. In its five-story, convenient building in downtown Boston, the success stories of tomorrow begin to take form. Here young men and women acquire solid foundations in business fundamentals, in skill subjects, and cultural-social studies. They learn to think for themselves, and to think straight. Carry hope into achievement by deciding now to learn more about Burdett College . . . its experienced faculty . . . its enviable reputation among employers.

In the long run

you and your friends will prize the portrait that looks like you — your truest self, free from stage effects and little conceits. It is in this “long run” Photography that

PURDY success has been won.

Portraiture by the camera that one cannot laugh at or cry over in later years.

For present pleasure and future pride protect your photographic self by having
PURDY make the portraits.

CLASS SONG

by

Mary Johnson and Mary Sheehan

I

The day we've longed for,
At last is with us,
And we're parting from school.
We do not know
Just how to greet it,
Shall it be tears or smiles?
Though many will follow
us, as many have past,
They'll never love —
As we've loved —
Our Canton High.

II

We'll face the world
With all its troubles,
But we'll all see it through.
We'll miss the teachers
And all their scoldings
On the long road through life.
As knowledge and truth
Shall light our way to success,
We'll give out last fare-thee-well to
Canton High School.

Girls' Gifts

- Esther Adams — Merry-go-round
 To Esther goes this Merry-go-round,
 'Cause she's so full of cheers;
 Here's hoping that she'll stay that way
 As days roll into years.
- Rosa Dardano — Horn
 To Rosa we give this little horn
 As we know she is quiet and shy
 And when she blows a very sweet note
 We'll know she is somewhere by.
- Yvonne Fitzpatrick — Pencils
 To Yvonne we give these pencils
 Yellow, green and blue,
 And, if ever again she borrows
 That day she's sure to rue!
- Marionne Flower — Sewing Basket
 To Marionne we give this basket
 Filled with threads of different hue
 We hope it will not be her casket
 When she meets a boy marked
 "For You."
- Mary Galligan — Stilts
 This pair of stilts I give to you
 I trust you'll think they're dandy
 To carry you "Where 'ere you go
 And someday they'll come in handy.
- Ethel Gelpke — Alarm Clock
 To Ethel, we'd like to give
 A forty-eight hour day,
 But instead here is an alarm clock
 To get her up and on her way.
- Ruth Graham — Golf Club
 Our gift to Ruth is this Golf Club
 And as round the links she roams
 We hope she'll make a hole in one
 And bring the "Highest Honors"
 home.
- Olive Griffin — Saddle
 To Olive, we give this saddle
 All wrapper in western style,
 So now when she gets lonely
 She can go out, and ride awhile.
- Dorothy Guerrin — Dancing Shoes
 To "Dot" our graceful Jitterbug
 We give this pair of shoes
 And with them she'll dance right in the heart
 Of anyone she does choose.
- Natalie Haynes—Book of Witticisms
 To Natalie, who's contagious laugh
 Has filled many a heart with glee,
 We give this book of Witticisms
 So laughing she'll always be.
- Ruth Hiltz — Roller Skates
 A pair of roller skates for Ruth
 To ease the weary stress
 Of riding home from Norwood town
 In gallant Dick's Express.
- Mary Johnson — Baton
 To Mary goes this little stick
 And with it crowds she'll lure
 An then we'll all be saying,
 "I used to go to school with her."
- Madeline Lowry — First Aid Kit
 To Madeline we give a kit
 And hope she will value it,
 To aid her in her chosen work
 From which she'll never, never shirk.
- Phyllis Lowry — Pair of Shoes
 This pair of shoes like Cinderella's
 Have a magic power
 And when you have them on your feet
 They really seem much smaller.
- Dorothy McDermott —
 Package of Gum
 To Dot we give this pack of gum
 To add to her collection,
 But don't let Mr. Galvin see,
 Or he'll put you on Detention.
- Ruth McDougall — Ice Cream Cone
 Ruth doesn't care for Canton lads,
 We gather from various yarns,
 It seems her heart is all wrapped up
 In the Neponset Valley Farms.

Anna McGrath — Fan

Anna is so very meek
She dislikes fame of any kind
Perhaps this little fan is needed
For her to hide behind.

Caroline Sawyer — "Billy Goat"

Caroline, here's a little goat
A gift you may think silly,
But when misfortune comes your way
You can turn to "Billy."

Eleanor Morrell — Man

To Eleanor, who fills the school
with laughter,
Eleanor, who gets what she goes after
Eleanor, who is a true friend ever,
May life with him be fair forever.

June Sawyer — Book of Games

To June, our little "gamester,"
We give this book of games to play
So whenever she goes to a party
She's sure to make it gay.

Rose Murphy — Gun

To Rose, we give this little gun
To fire when she's around,
For although we think her quite
"the tops,"
She's got to make some sound!

Betty Shannon — Date-Book

To Betty goes this date-book
All new and shiny bright
It won't be long, we wager,
'Til she'll be filling in each night.

Joan Pesaturo — Key

Since you're familiar with all keys
We give you this key to a heart
And we are sure that once you get inside
You will play a leading part.

Mary Sheehan — Bike

To Mary, who's so versatile,
We give this brand new bike,
So now whene'er she strays from
home,
She will not have to hike.

Gloria Pozzo — Car

To Gloria we give this car
For she does love to roam
We hope she will not venture far
But always will reach home.

Shirley Stone — Readers Digest

To Shirley goes this little book
Readers Digest is its name
So keep up with "affairs of state"
For it may lead to fame.

Dorothy Priluck — Medal

To Dot Priluck, who's ability
To sell ads, is unsurpassed,
We present her with a medal
For the best salesman in our class!

Jean Strickland — Bike

To Jean we give this bike
When "Whitty" she wants to see,
To save her from that long long hike
That would otherwise be.

Anne Ronayne — Road Map

To Anne we give this map
With Stoughton clearly marked
Hoping it will help her find
The one who she left behind.

Kay Sullivan — Water-can

To Kay we give this water can
To help Auldice every morn;
For, two pals should stick together,
Am I right, or am I wrong?

Ann Rumrey — Aeroplane

An areoplane we give to Anne
So in it she can fly
And hope that if she ever falls
It won't be up too high.

Marcella Ulman — Book

To Marcella we give this book
To help her choose her work,
And hope 'twill prove of use to her,
When she is hard at work.

Ruth Waterfield — Make-up Kit

If Ruth would use this make-up kit
How surprised her friends would be,
For: although she's quite a pretty lass,
It's natural, you see.

Auldice Wilson — Package of Seeds

To Auldice, we gladly give
This package full of seeds,
And, as one farmer to another
"Don't fergit to pull them weeds!"
D. Guerrin, '40
O. Griffin, '40

Boys' Gifts

William Adams — Knife

"Billie" gets a jackknife,
To whittle down his score,
For when he's at the golf links
Boy! You should see it soar!

Arnold Eardley — Shears

These shears belong to Eardley
To shorten up his tales,
He can make a few grains of salt
Sound like a school of whales.

Anthony Ammendolia — Summons

"Tony" is quite a driver,
He goes so fast through town,
We thought a little summons
Might help to slow him down.

James Farrell — Car

"Jimmie" has a license,
In case you didn't know,
Call him morning, noon, or night—
He'll gladly give a tow.

James Brown — Curling Iron

"Jim" is quite a dapper,
Come, now, put in that curl,
You'll have to look just perfect,
If you want to keep your girl.

John Graham — Badge

Jackie wants to be a "cop,"
We hope he will succeed,
Here's a bright new badge to flash,
In case you find the need!

James Burgun — Watch

"Jim" is our star runner —
He's always set for race,
Use this gold time-ticker
To help you set your pace!

Thomas Griffin — Medal

If you are ever swimming,
And frightened you should grow,
Call Lifesaver "Griff" Weismuller,
And watch the danger go!

Frank Carpenter — Airplane

Isn't this plane a beauty?
Fly until it stops,
Better take a parachute —
They make much safer drops.

Joseph Hallett — Bicycle

Ponkapoag, we do believe,
Is really quite a hike,
So when you go down that "Way,"
Joe —
Why not ride this bike?

John Copley — Key

You have tried so hard to win
A Sharon maiden's heart,
Here's a bright new shining key —
Well, boy, there's a start!

Everett Harlfinger — Rules

"Six" is our tall classmate —
We all agree, that's right.
To him we give a ruler,
To keep track of his great height.

Alfred Crowd — Trumpet

A trumpet fine for "Alfie,"
But friends, we have one fear,
The music may go "round and round",
And finally come out here.

Paul Keleher — Wings

A pair of wings for "Sparky,"
He is our baseball ace.
Use these when you are flying
From base, to base, to base.

Loren Kelly — Mirror

Take a peek in the looking glass,
Now aren't those curls so sweet?
No wonder all the lassies sigh,
When "Hink" walks down the street.

Duncan Mackiernan — Bulb

Don't try to plant this, Duncan
In your family flower bed,
It's to help you find your way clear
As you march on ahead.

Richard McLeod — Pins

"Dick" is quite a pin boy,
He always sets them right —
He can't forget his duties,
If he keeps these in sight.

William Milligan — Car

"Bud" gets a little motor!
Have no fear of a flood!
Because this little vehicle,
Will go through any mud.

Richard Morrison — Pad and Pencil

A happy office worker —
That's what he is to us,
Jot down all your reminders —
Then there will be no fuss.

Anthony Pavadore — Engine

A diesel engine, "Tony,"
It's broken — can you fix?
What a foolish question —
He'll find just how it ticks!

Carmine Porcaro — Tie

What a lovely present!
Don't you just love bright ties?
We picked this out on purpose,
For those great big brown eyes!

Albert Reynolds — Golf Ball

When "Penny's" on the golf links,
He always calls out — "Fore,"
If you don't believe he means it,
Take a good look at his score.

Richard Sarra — Pair of Shoes

Yes, Sir! shoes for Sarra!
He's such a great speed king —
We hope some day that we will read
That he is King of Swing!

Arthur Sweetman — Yeast Cake

Arthur's quite a little man,
We'd call him "Baby Size,"
Take this little yeast cake!
We'd like to see you rise.

William Simons — Hoodsie

"Billie" is the champ, we hear,
From down the lunch room way,
When it comes to eating HOODSIES
Did he ever miss a day?

Joseph Veiga — Sieve

Joe is quite a reader
Of all detective books.
This little gift may help him
To separate "cops" from crooks.

Thomas Whitty — Bat

"Hacker" too, plays baseball,
Is likewise quite a star —
When he connects, with pleasure,
Does that ball travel far!

Robert Woodman — Harmonica

"Chick," take this gift we give you,
It's something you can use,
Come! strike us up a merry tune
And cast away our blues!

Bernard Whidden — Map

"Sandy" gets a road map,
To keep inside his car,
To help him keep his bearings,
In case he travels far.

Statistics

Time: 1945

Occasion: Reunion of the Class of 1940.

Taking a glance over the Echo of 1940, many happy memories have been brought back.

How can anyone of us ever forget the Senior Class Play "Leave It To Mother," with Betty Shannon and Bud Milligan taking off top honors as best actress and actor.

As you remember, Ethel Gelpke and Jimmy Burgun were voted the most attractive couple of our class and they are still holding true to their honors.

Carolyn Sawyer, Mary Johnson, Tony Ammendolia and Sam Sarra were voted as the most musical members of our class, and we hope that tonight they will renew those memories with a few musical selections.

Our class babies, Phyllis Lowry and Hacker Whitty, who were only sixteen when they graduated, are now twenty-one; whereas Eleanor Morrell and Sandy Whidden, the oldest members of our graduating class, are now twenty-four.

Mary Johnson and Jackie Graham were all "dolled-up" as usual, for as you know they were voted the best dressed of our class. Olive Griffin and Joe Hallett come in second for that title.

We wonder if Arthur Sweetman and Ruth Hiltz are still as surprising as they were five years ago. We never knew what they were going to do next, and even the word surprising doesn't fully describe them.

It seems good to hear the merry voices of Yvonne Fitzpatrick and Dick McLeod. As you remember, they were voted the noisiest members of our class. And we do mean noisy.

Ruth Hiltz (! ! !) and Arthur Sweetman were voted as the bashful members of our class. However, we think we know them better than that, and we would say — — , well, we'd just say, get to know them as well as we do.

Will anyone ever forget the Senior Class Banquet? We had to place Rosa Dardano and Jimmy Burgun at one end of the table and Rose Murphy and Bud Milligan at the other end, since they are the best-mannered members of our class, as for the others, well — — .

Although Dorothy Guerrin and Dick Morrison were voted as the most conceited members of our class, we're sure by this time that everyone's opinion has changed, because if everyone really knew Dot and Dick they couldn't possibly say they were conceited.

We know Esther Adams and Alfie Crowd are having a wonderful time tonight, since as the jolliest of the class, they have always succeeded in keeping us all in high spirits. Gloria Pozzo was voted as our class flirt, and we wonder what a difference of five years has made. Our class shiek is none other than Hinky Kelly.

Betty Shannon and Sis Galligan as the cutest members of our class, are still holding their titles.

June Sawyer and Dick Morrison hold the honor of being the most efficient members of the Statistics Troupe.

Mary Sheehan and Jackie Graham were voted as the most popular members of the class. Kay Sullivan and Hacker Whitty came in second for the title.

Our four years of high school would certainly have been dull, if we didn't have Carolyn Sawyer and Frank Carpenter to keep us in high spirits with their witty sayings which have given them the title as being the wittiest.

Joan Pesaturo and Duncan MacKiernan were voted as the quietest members of our class.

Honors for being the most athletic went to Kay Sullivan and Hacker Whitty with Ruth Waterfield and Dick McLeod coming in a close second.

Usually English has been voted the pet hate of every class, but our class has to be different — so English has been unanimously selected as the favorite subject of our class.

Glenn Miller is still the favorite orchestra and in a few minutes you will hear their melodious tunes. Of course, the dancing will be led by Dot Guerrin, Billy Adams, May Galligan and Tony Ammendolia, the dancers of our class.

I think we'd better close the Echo of 1940 and listen to what Barbara Stanwyck and Mickey Rooney, the class's favorite movie actress and actor, have to say. They were only too glad to be present at our reunion! ! ! After all, most of the other speakers were as boring as usual, so we're glad Mary Sheehan, Hacker Whitty and Duncan MacKiernan, those clever people of our class, remembered to bring their 1940 Echo with them.

Time to go home so soon?

Well, here's hoping we have another reunion next year, 1946.

Ruth MacDougall's place in Glee Club to Alice Jivelegian.

Richard MacLeod's well-combed hair to Louis LaBombard.

William Milligan's stool at Neponset Valley to Hollis Dings.

Eleanor Morrell's singing ability to next year's Glee Club.

Richard Morrison's place as Miss Ahearn's right-hand man to Ermes Cametti.

Rose Murphy's famous blush to Esther Anderson.

Anthony Pavadore's night owl life to Paul Ronayne.

Carmino Pocaro's ability in cooking class to Charlie Tolia.

Gloria Pozzo's curly locks to Rosamond Rumrey.

Dorothy Priluck's widow's peak to Vivian Gilmore.

Albert Reynold's skill on the golf course to Joe Conlon.

Anne Rumrey's love of aeroplanes to Elizabeth Dallahan.

Caroline Sawyer's position in the 5 & 10 to Louise Davenport.

June Sawyer's surplus height to Doris Tracy.

Kay Sullivan's jolly nature to Clarissa Shaw.

John Copley leaves the road to Sharon to no one; he intends to use it.

Richard Sarra's bone clip to Euro Mazzone.

Auldice Wilson's knack of handling the sophomore boys to Amy Mann.

Arthur Sweetman's perfect punch to John Wilson.

Joan Pesaturo's perfect jitterbugging to Annamae Bailey.

Dorothy Guerrin's corridor period to Phyllis Jones.

Eliabzeth Shannon's mischievous ways to Alma Iaretti.

Mary Sheehan's helpful manner to Doris Josephson.

Robert Woodman's way with the chickens to Eddie Estey.

Jean Strickland's seat on the sidelines to Wanda Pavidis.

Joseph Veiga's industriousness to Joe Thompson.

Marcella Ulman's cheerful smile to anyone who needs it.

Ruth Waterfield's bowling score to Marjorie Chase.

Arnold Eardley's charming accent to John Dalton.

Thomas Whitty's football captaincy to Red Jones.

Eddie Power's roller-skates to Walter Poore.

Bernard Whidden's knowledge of night life to George Titus.

Anne Ronayne's happy smile to Virginia McKay.

Anna McGrath's happy personality to Martha Adams.

Phyllis Lowry's talkative ways to Betty Griffin.

Fourth: To the faculty, we wish to say, "Thank you," for their kind and unselfish assistance during our four years at Canton High.

In Witness whereof the foregoing instrument was signed and sealed by the said members of the Class of '40 and by them published and declared as and for their last will and testament, and, at their request and in their presence, we hereunto affix our signatures as attorneys for said class at Canton, Massachusetts, this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty.

Class Prophecy

A hush fell over the talkative, turbulent group as an elderly woman rose to speak. Even now, thirty years after the first banquet in 1940, she carried herself with the same dignity and bearing of the teacher whose gracious manner and wisdom inspired us to climb to the highest rung of the ladder of success. Introductions were unnecessary, for each and every member of the former class of '40 had immediately recognized her as Mrs. Dana.

"As I gaze around the room," she began, "it isn't difficult to recognize you. The years have changed you; time has given you experience, patience, and understanding, but to me you are still the happy-go-lucky youth of '40. I think it would be nice to discover what each of you has been doing since graduation." She turned to the rather serious-faced boy on her left, whose "glamour boy" personality might have won him fame as a screen star, if he had not let his intense, profound fascination for history domineer his life and turn him to another road of success. As he rose to speak Mrs. Dana threw an electric switch. As each person present at the banquet rose at his place, a few flashes of important incidents in his life passed in review on a screen before us. This new type of vision machine was the invention of "Dunk" Mackiernan, the scientist of our class, whose life had been spent delving into the mechanisms of all kinds of such machines.

(Now to get back to the fellow who rose to speak.) On to the screen came a picture of Harvard College, followed by pictures of the history classes. Suddenly a familiar face beamed out and we realized that it was "Professor" Brown — Jimmy to us! After this there was a picture of Jimmy — who was still a bachelor — walking with his favorite girl, June Sawyer. June, it seems, was working in Mr. Anketell's office in place of Miss Ahearn, who had just resigned.

After Jimmy had finished his speech and sat down, a tall girl started from her chair. For a while we were puzzled as to what the picture on the screen meant. It was merely a picture of a masked man on a white horse — and the victrola on the machine chanted the overture to William Tell. Then we remembered that Rosa Dardano had obtained a job on the radio in an indirect manner by singing the Lone Ranger's Chant — Hi-O-Silver!

The tall, bashful president of our class got up next. Pictures of engineering school and honors won by him, followed by a wedding scene with orange blossoms and strains of Lohengrin appeared on the screen. A beautiful girl was marching down the altar to meet Buddy. A closer look showed that the girl was the famed artist, whose drawings were in every magazine throughout the country, Gloria Pozzo. Buddy told us that they were very happy together in their modernistic house which he had built just recently.

When one of our ex-football heroes arose to speak, a picture of hundreds of thousands of pennies and picture of a girl came on. We realized that it signified that Harlfinger at last had saved enough money to marry his dream-girl!

Next followed pictures of airplanes, a crack-up, and a new high school, as another girl arose. Anne, it seems, had opened an aviation school. One day she had swooped down a little too close to mother earth and had clipped off a hunk of Canton High. People always claimed it was not an accident — but it was a good way of getting a new school — anyhow!

Dick Morrison slowly got up from his chair. Pictures of a blue swan and three or four girls appeared before us. Dick had opened a new night club in Canton "The Blue Swan," with Mary Galligan as bouncer, Olive Griffin as hostess, and Madeline Lowry as the flirtatious hat-check girl.

Esther Adams, Dorothy McDermott, and Shirley Stone worked as chorus girls in the floor show. What a bevy of beautiful girls!

The efficient responsible ex-president of Student Government, Ethel, arose. On the screen came pictures of Simmons College, followed by those of a dietitian, and finally a home in Hollywood with her illustrious actor-husband — William Milligan.

Next, a pretty blond girl stood up. Immediately a picture of the "Toonerville" train flashed on. Someone beside me whispered that after Ruth Hiltz had inherited a million dollars she bought the train so she could drive it. Everyone in town was talking about the way she drove it out from Boston, leaning out the cab window and singing loudly at the top of her voice. It seemed that the older generation of Canton disapproved of the way she was acting.

Eleanor Morrell had been unable to attend our banquet as she was tied up with an engagement in Boston. We were told that she, at last, had crashed the pearly gates of Metropolitan Opera, and could now be heard anytime we had the money or patience to sit and listen to Lohengrin, La Traviata or La Tosca, (and to think once we could listen to her free of charge!)

"Tony" Ammendolia had also been unable to attend as he was directing these operas as musical conductor. He had gone to Boston University College of Music and had received such a thorough education he had been demanded for the job he now filled.

A graceful young girl stood up. A picture of dramatic school and a gasoline station appeared before us. "Dotty" Guerrin had gone to dramatic school, but had then opened a gasoline station because she made more money. Her silvery voice and pleasing personality had increased her gas sales immensely.

Then a picture of a streamlined theater was projected onto the screen. Ruth Graham, who had ushered at the former Strand Theater, was now owner. She had abolished forever the system that forced grade "B" pictures to be played with major productions.

Rose Murphy and Mary Sheehan now worked there as ushers. They looked very neat indeed, going down the aisle in their streamlined gowns, as they ushered people merrily to their seats.

Two people now pushed back their chairs to rise. Yvonne and Dick MacLeod, finding that their voices made an excellent team had joined, and after a Major Bowes program had obtained a radio job. Ralph Masciarelli and Tony Pavadore worked for them as sound effect men.

A picture of a kindergarten school came next. Marianne Flower had opened it with Dorothy Priluck helping to run it. They both agreed that Caroline Sawyer's twins were the most adorable children they had ever seen.

Natalie Haynes (expert typist and stenographer, thanks to the capable, cooperative instruction of our C. H. S. teachers) stood up. Pictures of the Presidential office, and then a wedding scene went onto the screen. "Nat" had worked several years as secretary to the President of the United States, but finding that two could live as cheaply as one, had gaily tripped to the altar in a style unequalled by anyone else. Frank made an excellent President — as well as a husband, so Natalie proudly boasted.

Mary Johnson told us that for several years she had been unable to decide what to do. Finally, inspired by Mr. Dowson's English IV class, she became a teacher — pictures of this were also shown.

Photographs showed us the new housing development in Ponkapoag, and a jolly, well-dressed man ringing doorbells. Hallett had found that the only way he could work and be happy was to become a salesman for Model T Homes, Inc.

Rolling rhythm beat out, while pictures of a ballroom appeared. Billy Adams, whose athletic build had infatuated countless girls of the lower classes in Canton High, now drew in a number of female dance aspirants for his new school of dancing. Richard Sarra was in charge of the orchestra.

Paul Keleher, famous baseball and football star, was pitching balls for the Green Cardinals, which threatened to revolutionize baseball throughout the country. His very dependable, capable manager was none other than "Alfi" Crowd, who had found plenty of experience in this life at C. H. S.

That carefree, peppy girl, who could stir up laughter in the dullest class arose. Pictures of many books flashed on. Betty Shannon had become a famous authoress whose books were guaranteed to get you out of the gloomiest moods.

"Penny" had obtained a job as head of the street department, because of his past learning in dear old Alma Mater. Habit and sentiment kept him from getting any other kind of job.

A bachelor's home appeared. Sweetman had opened it because of his intense dislike for the opposite sex. His steady boarders were Loren Kelley, George Roache, and James Farrell.

Pictures of a fire and an engine racing toward it come on. Arnold Eardley, Tom Griffin, and Copley had taken over the Fire Department. The only trouble, Tom told us confidentially, was the domineering supervision of Anna McGrath; and Joan Pesaturo, who insisted on hanging on back and going to every fire, making a general nuisance of herself.

Whidden arose. Pictures of a new high-powered car came on the screen. Whidden had invented it, and if and when traffic became too congested, it opened its wings and became an airplane.

Scenes of a beautiful girl in a sarong became visible on the screen. As we studied it carefully we saw it resembled Ruth Waterfield. Ruth had grown her curly locks, donned a sarong, and was now giving Dotty Lamour some pretty stiff competition.

Now, views of a wide, ranging ranch appeared with horses, cowboys, and all the trimmings. Our friend, Carmino Porcaro, had developed a liking for riding in high school and, as a result, bought the ranch. Marcella told me frankly that she didn't share her husband's liking for riding. She always seemed to spend more time off the horse than on.

Pictures of a drug store came next. Behind the counter were two exceptionally pretty girls. One was Anna Ronayne — the other, Dot Gibson. Their super-specialty was slinging sodas to each other as they prepared them. The manager, Joe Veiga, didn't seem to mind as long as they didn't mess the place up, at least that's what he had told the girls.

Surgery scenes with two girls dressed in white appeared. Auldice and Kay were in the middle of a very delicate operation. Auldice and Kay told us that only once did they leave a pair of scissors inside a patient.

Another seat was empty. Ruth MacDougall had been unable to attend because Junior had been ill, and she didn't want to risk it.

Views of Woodman's chicken farm were shown next. Woodman still played his harmonica to put his chickens to sleep nights.

Suddenly a cloud of white dust appeared as a picture. We couldn't see what it was — and then Sweetman's head appeared. He was now employed as black-board eraser's boy. He gave them such a vigorous clapping that I personally felt sure he'd wear them out.

Jack Graham's life was swiftly reviewed on the screen. Athletic awards, cups, and blue ribbons, followed by his marriage to a very adorable girl whom he had met at Canton — or rather, Ponkapoag — were parts of his life.

For several years, the machine showed, Jean Strickland went around with a dark, good-looking fellow whom she later married. Soon after she was divorced, her husband insisting that she threw the bread she made at him. It was so hard, he argued, that it put him in the hospital for weeks.

And last but not least, Burgun, my secretary, and I had traveled in Eupore for many years. Our gift to mankind was our successful assassination of Hitler and Goering; and our escape from the firing squad was due only to the quickness of Anne and her super-special airplane!

P. Lowry, '40.

Class History

One bright September morning eighty-three new Freshmen, eager, expectant, but rather timid, entered the portals of Canton High School, facing the brand new experience of new friends, new knowledge, and a new life.

After organization in the home rooms, we elected our year's leaders: John Howard as President, John Rowe as Vice President, Ethel Gelpke as Secretary, and Thomas Whitty as Treasurer. Ruth Graham, James Burgun, and Ethel Gelpke were elected to represent the class in the Student Council. Two new teachers, Miss Kavanaugh and Miss Mahoney, entered school with us this year. Many of our numbers were competent and successful members of the football team, baseball team, orchestra, and glee club.

After an uneventful but happy year as Freshmen, we eagerly moved up one rung on the class ladder to assume the slightly more important position as Sophomores, able now to dictate to the new Freshmen. Results of the elections showed Albert Reynolds as our new class President, Rita Toomey as Vice President, Olive Griffin as Secretary, and Anthony Ammendolia as Treasurer; also Richard Sarra and Ethel Gelpke as Student Council representatives. This year saw no class activities but a great participation in athletics, many of our classmates starring on the football, track, and girls' hockey teams, and being the recipients of letters at the annual A. A. Banquet in January. We lost one teacher this year, Miss Prev, but acquired two new ones, Mr. Dowson and Miss Roach.

September of 1938 saw us fewer in numbers but greater in our newly acquired prestige; we were now upperclassmen and could lord it over all but those stately and dignified (?) occupants of Room I. After a two weeks' snow storm of nomination papers and ballots, and an exciting new municipal type of elections, we found ourselves with the following officers: Richard Sarra, President; Thomas Whitty, Vice President; James Burgun, Secretary; Ethel Gelpke, Treasurer. Representatives in the Student Government were Mary Sheehan, Anthony Ammendolia, Everett Harlfinger, and Ethel Gelpke. This year was a revelation of new abilities of our classmates. Nearly every member of the class showed his pugilistic ability in the Boxing and Wrestling Show in April, his histrionic ability in the Minstrel Show in January, or his salesmanship ability in the Food Sale and the Magazine Drive. New acting talent was unearthed in the Junior Dramatic Club under the direction of Miss Kavanaugh and Miss Lamoureux, with Marcella Utman as Secretary, and Auldice Wilson as Treasurer. We discovered budding track stars in John Graham, Richard Sarra, James Burgun, Everett Harlfinger, and Alfred Crowd; the first two were cup winners in the annual three-mile road race on April 19, 1939.

This year Mr. Masterson and Mr. Gibson were added to the teaching staff, Miss Canan took over musical direction, and at the time of Miss Kavanaugh's departure in the middle of the year, Miss Lamoureux became a new member of the faculty. We also greeted Miss Robinson when we lost Miss McEnaney to Quincy High School.

Next was our Junior Prom, scheduled for May 19. Great and ambitious plans were made and completed, but due to unforeseen and unfortunate circumstances, the great event was cancelled.

Juniors, too, took part in the graduation exercises when Ruth Waterfield, Caroline Sawyer, June Sawyer, Phyllis Lowry, Mary Galligan, Mary Sheehan, Rosa Dardano, Shirley Stone, Ruth Hiltz, and Ethel Gelpke were recipients of Pro Merito pins and Anthony Ammedolia, Dorothy Guerrin, and Richard Sarra of Debating Society pins. Our class president, Richard Sarra, was marshal for the graduating Seniors.

September, 1939, and we reached the ultimate ambition of our high school career: to be Seniors. Now we have attained our last and final goal of this experience: the end of the year and graduation. This Senior year has been full of achievements and activities; it has been a busy year, and one of which we shall always have pleasant and fond memories.

This year's officers were as follows: Thomas Whitty, President; Caroline Sawyer, Vice President; Mary Sheehan, Secretary; and James Burgun, Treasurer. Seniors on the Student Government were Natalie Haynes, John Graham, Everett Harlfinger, Frank Carpenter, and Ethel Gelpke.

Thomas Whitty was chosen captain of the football team, and Alfred Crowd, manager, handled the affairs and records of the team. Eight of our popular classmates, Olive Griffin, Dorothy Guerrin, Mary Galligan, Ruth Graham, Mary Johnson, Mary Sheehan, Ruth Hiltz, and Esther Adams were able and vivacious leaders of the cheering section during the season. Many Seniors starred in the fall games of football and of girl's field hockey, the latter team having Ruth Waterfield as Captain and Jean Strickland as Manager.

Baseball, with "Sparky" Keleher as Captain and Alfred Crowd as Manager, golf, track, and ice hockey were other sports of the year enjoying fairly successful seasons, many of our boys playing prominent parts on each team. The boys' ice hockey team was organized under Alfred Crowd as Captain, playing and winning several fast and exciting games.

The Glee Club under the direction of Miss Canan, with Caroline Sawyer, accompanist for two years, enjoyed a year's work in new music and new musical knowledge.

The annual Minstrel Show, performed a second time by popular demand was a great success, with Eleanor Morrell, Yvonne Fitzpatrick, Dorothy Guerrin, and Ruth McDougall as singing stars, and Richard MacLeod, Ralph Mascierelli, Anthony Pavadore, Everett Harlfinger, Robert Woodman, and Richard Sarra as the hilarious end men. The first performance was given after the A. A. Banquet in January under the direction of the Association officers, Mary Galligan, President, and Olive Griffin, Secretary.

Our social debut, our Senior Dance, held on January 19, two food sales, the annual Boxing and Wrestling Show, and a benefit movie held in the Strand Theatre, were all financial successes, enlarging our treasury greatly for the class trip.

The golf team was rolling over the opposition with birdies and pars by Albert Reynolds, Captain, James Farrell, John Graham, Lorin Kelly, William Adams, and James Burgun.

Dorothy Guerrin, another of our able classmates, was chosen a school representative of the Junior Red Cross, returning with many helpful suggestions for the formation of a society in our school.

One of our most talented girls, Phyllis Lowry was elected Editor-in-Chief of the Echo with other Seniors on the staff: James Burgun, Business Manager; Alfred Crowd and Ruth Graham, Athletic reporters; Natalie Haynes and Frank Carpenter, Class reporters; and Mary Sheehan, Club reporter.

John Graham was, for the second consecutive year, awarded the High School cup in the three-mile road race held on April 19. Other track stars, also trophy winners of this race, were James Burgun and Richard Sarra.

The Senior Dramatic Club had a very successful and enjoyable year, its efforts being rewarded when the entire Senior Play cast was chosen from its numbers. "Leave It To Mother" was presented on April 5, with such capable actors and actresses as Dorothy Guerrin, Ruth McDougall, William Milligan, Elizabeth Shannon, James Burgun, Marionne Flower, Robert Woodman, Anne Rumrey, Anthony Ammedolia, Frank Carpenter, Rose Murphy, and Ethel Gelpke taking part.

On May 19 fifty-six members of the class sailed from Providence on our class trip to New York. We spent two memorable days in New York City including one at the fair. The whole trip will remain in our memory as one of the most significant events in our school career.

Here we wish to record the name of one of our classmates, Laura Corey, who left us in our Junior year, on May 19.

“She went away in beauty’s flower,
Before her life was spent,
Ere life and love had lived its hour,
God called her, and she went.

Yet whispers Faith upon the wind,
No grief to her was given,
She left our love and went to find
A greater one in heaven.”

The entire class wishes at this time to extend to Mr. Anketell, Mrs. Dana, and all members of the faculty, our sincere thanks and appreciation for the helpful guidance and advice during these four happy years at Canton High School.

May our education yield us rich dividends in health, happiness, and achievement, and may we always find that “Knowledge and truth shall light our way.”

French Club

A newly-formed French Club made its appearance on the horizon of school activities this year under the supervision of Miss Lamoureux.

Informal meetings were held in which only French was spoken. During these meetings we read plays, held discussions, and played French games.

The Club this year has only about 20 members. They are: Albert Dardano, Donald Cobb, Rita Johnson, Louise Davenport, Jean McEnancy, Myrtle Gross, Warren Smith, Joe Ronayne, Ralph Briggs, Amy Mann, Mary Sheehan, Mary Johnson, Eleanor Duggan, Virginia Hawley, Priscilla Brown, Virginia French, Frances Morrell and Wanda Pavides. No officers were elected because of the Club’s informality.

1st row: L. Davenport, A. Mann, E. Gelpke, Mrs. Dana, B. Wood, N. Haynes.

2nd row: J. Graham, F. Carpenter, V. French, P. Chase, L. Capen, A. Dardano, W. Reynolds, E. Harlfinger.

Student Government

The Student Government held its annual election in September with the following councillors elected: Seniors: J. Graham, F. Carpenter, E. Gelpke, E. Harlfinger, N. Haynes. Juniors: A. Mann, A. Dardano, L. Davenport, V. French. Sophomores: L. Capen, B. Wood, W. Reynolds. Freshmen: P. Chase, J. Miller.

Mrs. Dana was appointed faculty advisor and whatever has been accomplished by the Student Government this year is in large measures due to her advice and unfailing co-operation.

The following officers were elected: President, Ethel Gelpke; Vice President, Albert Dardano; Secretary, Barbara Wood; Treasurer, Natalie Haynes.

This year the Student Government has sponsored a Freshman Social and a school Christmas party. It has sent delegates to both district and state conventions of Student Councils. It has discussed the starting of Junior Red Cross Club in C. H. S. but as yet nothing further has been done.

The Student Government wishes to thank both the students and faculty for the co-operation they have offered in the enterprises which it sponsored this year.

PRO MERITO

1st row: R. Hiltz, J. Sawyer, Mrs. Dana, M. Galligan, M. Sheehan.

Pro Merito

At Canton High School the Pro Merito Society was established in the year 1922. All Juniors and Seniors who received an average of 85 per cent or above during their High Course have been awarded Pro Merito pins. These pins are given at the high school graduation. Those members of the class of 1940 who received Pro Merito pins in their Junior year are: Ethel Gelpke, Phyllis Lowry, Anne Rumrey, Caroline Sawyer, June Sawyer, Shirley Stone, and Ruth Waterfield.

SENIOR DRAMATICS

1st row, seated: P. Brown, W. Milligan, D. Guerrin, E. Gelpke, E. Shannon, R. Murphy, R. Woodman, A. Rumrey.
 2nd row: M. Flower, M. Lowry, N. Haynes, Y. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Dana, M. Ulman, D. Prihuck, K. Sullivan, A. Wilson.
 3rd row: A. Ammendolio, J. Strickland, P. Lowry, F. Carpenter, O. Griffin, E. Morrell, J. Burgun.

Senior Dramatic Club

The Senior Dramatic Club, under the competent instruction of Mrs. Dana, has had a very successful year.

The club met once a week throughout the year and enjoyed acting out several short plays in preparation for the main event of the year, the Senior Play.

"Leave It To Mother," by Joyce Andrews, was presented on April 5. The excellent acting by the cast, Mrs. Hitchen's coaching, and the combined efforts of the entire faculty helped to make the play a success. The cast was as follows:

Mrs. Louise Prescott, an old-fashioned mother	Ethel Gelpke
Stanley Prescott, her son	Robert Woodman
Coral Prescott, her ambitious daughter	Dorothy Guerrin
Dolly Prescott, her mischievous young daughter	Betty Shannon
Mrs. Madge Lawton, who has recently lost her husband	Anne Rumrey
Etta Ford, the Prescott maid	Marionne Flower
Easton Bowers, in love with Coral	William Milligan
Lucius Fowler, who has an eye for business	Frank Carpenter
Edna James, one of Coral's college chums	Ruth McDougall
Roberta Prescott, Stanley's wife	Rose Murphy
Frederick Driscoll, Roberta's uncle	Anthony Ammendolia
Lord Cecil Bunyan (Bunny), from "dear old England."	James Burgun
	Mary Sheehan, '40.

JUNIOR DRAMATICS

1st row, seated: E. Duggan, M. Hill, O. Marsters, J. Guild, S. Wenesky, M. Kaufman.

2nd row: D. Josephson, H. Garland, M. Vlahogianis, Miss Lamoureux, Miss Sargent, F. Morrell, V. French, J. McEnaney.

3rd row: D. Cobb, A. Dardano, D. Seaman, W. Hibbard, R. Shaughnessy.

Junior Dramatics

The 1940 Junior Dramatic Club has been very progressive and entertaining in its work for the past year. Back in September the following officers were elected:

Doris Josephson, president; Virginia French, vice-president; William Hibbard, treasurer, and your truly, secretary. Eleanor Duggan and Richard Shaughnessy were chosen class advisors.

The first few weeks, members gave skits, plays, poems, and monologues. Then plans were made for a Christmas Play to be presented at the annual Christmas party. Many fine plays were written but Donald Cobb's and Marie Hill's seemed to be the favorites. Marie's play was chosen to be presented at the Christmas Party. After Christmas with the money in our treasury we bought a play, "A Ready Made Family". Because of lack of time we did not put this play on as we had hoped.

Congratulations are extended to Miss Sargent and Miss Lamoureux, our teachers, for their help and patience in preparing us for next year's work in Senior Dramatics.

Glee Club

The Glee Club, composed of about seventy members, met every Thursday morning during the year. The first part of the year was devoted to the singing of folk songs in unison. Later they were sung in two-part and three-part harmony. Everyone has worked hard at these meetings to improve their voice for the beautiful art songs and patriotic pieces to which the second half of the year was devoted.

The Glee Club wishes to express their gratitude to Miss Marietta Canan, for her excellent supervision of this group, and for her faith in them.

ORCHESTRA

E. Adams, R. Kelliher, A. Rumrey, C. Sawyer, C. Shaw, P. Brown, M. Colsen, R. Johnson, M. Johnson, W. Reynolds, E. Cogliano, S. Sarra, R. Kelle, S. Danos, S. Mackiernan, Miss Canan, M. Toomey, E. Verity, E. Murphy, W. Collins, D. Mackiernan.

Orchestra

This year the orchestra, under the excellent supervision of Miss Canan, proved very successful.

It consisted of twenty players, including piano, drums, clarinets, violins, trumpets, trombones and saxophones.

It has furnished entertainment for the following events: Movie Queen, Community Club, Senior Class Play, Grammar School Graduation and the High School Graduation.

We wish to take the opportunity at this time to thank Miss Canan for the excellent work she has done. We also express the wish that next year she will have a very successful season.

DEBATING CLUB

1st row, seated: J. McEnaney, B. Wood, E. Dallahan, R. Johnson, M. Sheehan, S. Wenesky.

2nd row: F. Morrell, W. Reynolds, J. Ronayne, Mr. Dowson, A. Dardano, D. Cobb, L. Capen.

Debating Club

The activities of the Debating Club of Canton High School, under the direction of Mr. Dowson, began just after the Christmas Holidays. The following officers were elected:

President—Donald Cobb
 Vice-Pres.—Frances Morrell
 Secretary—Janina Oles
 Shirley Wenesky
 Treasurer—Albert Dardano

Miss Wenesky was appointed to take Miss Oles' place when she transferred to another school.

The main topic for debate for the year is: "Resolved: That the Government should control the railroads." We have had some very interesting practice debates with Norwood and so far have had two decision debates with North Attleboro. Canton was awarded one decision and lost the other. We have also had an inter-club debate on the question of Socialized Medicine. The members of the Debating Club are: D. Cobb, J. Ronayne, F. Morrell, J. McEnaney, M. Sheehan, R. Johnson, L. Capen, B. Wood, A. Dardano, R. Sarra, E. Dallahan and W. Reynolds.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

1st row, seated: S. Kemp, A. Gibson, B. Hiltz, M. Ulman, R. Waterfield, E. Adams, K. Sullivan, D. Josephson, L. Hibbard, D. Bullock, B. Wood.
 2nd row: J. Strickland, E. MacLeod, M. Flanagan, A. Iaretti, M. Gavigan, J. Kenefick, M. Gibson, R. Rumrey, C. Adams, M. Chase, J. Guild, Miss Lyons.
 3rd row: M. Adams, P. Chase, P. McDonald, L. Stuart, E. Anderson, M. Bretto, P. Hill, M. Kelleher, E. Leonard.

Girls Hockey

The Field Hockey season of 1939 started out with a lot of enthusiasm. Thirty-six girls turned out for hockey this season, a great many of them freshmen. The team tied three games and lost five.

The Senior girls receiving sweaters were: (Capt.) Ruth Waterfield, (Mgr.) Jean Strickland, Esther Adams, Ruth Hiltz, Kay Sullivan, Anne Rumrey and Marcella Ulman.

Those receiving large letters were: Doris Josephson, Evelyn MacLeod, Marion Gibson, Anna Gibson, Rosamond Rumrey, June Guild, Lydia Hibbard, and Mamie Bretto. Also, nineteen small letters were awarded.

The following are the scores of the season:

Canton	1	Stoughton	1
Canton	0	Sharon	0
Canton	0	North Easton	0
Canton	0	Stoughton	1
Canton	0	North Easton	2
Canton	0	Sharon	1
Canton	0	Braintree	1

FOOTBALL SQUAD

1st row, seated: J. Carroll, P. Ronayne, J. Reardon, I. Feldman, C. Seaman, J. Whitty, L. Flanagan, J. Thompson, C. Finn, F. Digirolamo.
 2nd row: D. Berardi, F. Kenefick, C. Sherr, J. O'Connor, F. Pavadore, E. Duggan, G. Titus, G. Buttrick, P. Buckley, W. Reynolds, F. Carmino.
 3rd row: W. Adams, M. Falls, D. Seaman, A. Kenefick, E. Cametti, J. Graham, Capt. T. Whitty, P. Keleher, J. Brown, R. Jones, R. Masciarelli, P. Cohen.
 4th row: Manager A. Crowd, E. Powers, A. Gomes, W. Gallant, A. Phelopoulus, T. Griffin, W. Poore, G. Roache, S. Chajnowski, J. Kelleher, H. Dings, L. Kelle, Coach W. Donovan.

Football

The 1939 football season opened with forty-eight reporting for duty to Coach Donovan. The first game was played against North Attleboro which was a tie game. Canton lost eight regulars and this lack of experience and material put the '39 squad in a bad place.

In the final game of the season we lost to our Thanksgiving Day rivals, Stoughton High School. It was played on a muddy field but the boys put up a good battle. Canton had two victories, Mansfield and North Easton. We lost six out of nine games.

Sweaters were awarded to the following seniors: Captain Whitty, J. Brown, W. Adams, E. Harlfinger, R. MacLeod, A. Pavadore, P. Keleher, J. Graham, A. Crowd.

SCORES

North Attleboro	0	Canton	0	Abington	19	Canton	0

The following underclass men were awarded letters at the A. A. Banquet: A. Phelopoulus, J. Kelleher, C. Tolias, R. Jones, A. Kenefic, P. Cohen, D. Seaman, J. Falls, E. Cametti, W. Poore, M. Curtis, E. Powers, W. Gallant.

Robert Jones was elected Captain of the 1940 football team.

A. Crowd.

GOLF TEAM

A. Reynolds, L. Kelley, W. Adams, J. Burgun, A. Kenefic, J. Farrell, J. Graham.

Golf Team

The Canton High School Golf Team is composed of the following players: A. Reynolds (Capt.), W. Adams, J. Burgun, J. Farrell, J. Graham, L. Kelley, A. Kenefic, J. Gibney.

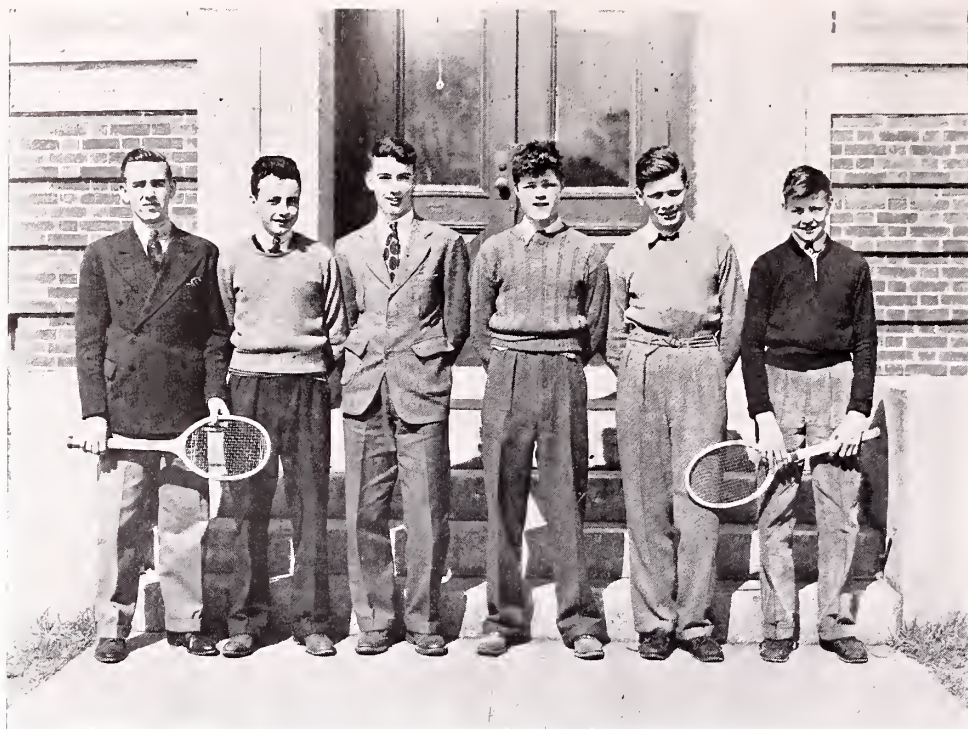

We had our first match scheduled for April 22, against Norwood, but due to a late snowstorm, we could not play. We opened the season on April 29 against Weymouth, on the Blue Hill course, and won 9-0. Our next match, May 2, was with Walpole High. Canton lost, 6½-2½. As the Echo goes to press, the golf season is well under way, but our chances of winning the trophy for the Norfolk County League are smaller. Needham seems to be the outstanding team in the league.

The 1940 schedule follows:

Date	Team	Score		Date	Team	Score
		Can.	Opp.			Can.	Opp.
April 22	Norwood at Canton	Postponed		May 13	Walpole at Canton	5½	3½
April 29	Weymouth at Canton	9	0	May 20	Needham at Canton	1	1
May 2	Canton at Walpole	2½	6½	May 27	Canton at N. Quincy	3	6
May 6	N. Quincy at Canton	4½	4½	May 28	Canton at Norwood
May 10	Canton at Weymouth	9	0	June 4	Canton at Needham

At this time we wish to thank the Blue Hill Country Club for allowing the team to use its beautiful, as well as difficult, course for our home matches. We also wish to thank Miss Leary and Mr. Anketell for their help and supervision of the golf team throughout the season.

A. Reynolds, '40.

TENNIS

Left to right: L. Dings, R. Shaughnessy, W. Smith, W. Hibbard, D. Seaman, E. Clerke.

Tennis

To date the tennis team, composed of William Hibbard, Warren Smith, Donald Seaman, Edward Clerke, has played but one match. In this, Norwood High School was defeated by the score of 4 to 1. Two other matches were postponed because of rain. Four more matches are scheduled to be played with Norwood, Wrentham, and Sharon. Lawton Dings has served as manager and Mr. Dowson as coach.

Lawton Dings, '41

BASEBALL

1st row: W. Poore, J. Brown, T. Griffin, P. Keleher, capt. M. Curtis, E. Farwell.

2nd row: C. Sherr, T. Whitty, J. Graham, J. Queennan, A. Reynolds, C. Titus, Coach W. Donovan.

3rd row: A. Crowd, R. MacLeod, I. Feldman, D. Berardi.

Baseball

After the April vacation, twenty-five boys reported to Coach Donovan for the 1940 baseball season. The team was not very successful in its first three games, losing to Mansfield, Stoughton, and Randolph, but these games were close and Canton could just as easily have won them. From all appearances, the team should win its share of games before the season ends. The results thus far:

Mansfield	5	Canton	4
Stoughton	8	Canton	7
Randolph	13	Canton	8

Remainder of Schedule

May 14	Randolph at Canton
May 17	Canton at Franklin
May 21	No. Easton at Canton
May 23	Canton at Stoughton
May 28	Canton at No. Easton
May 31	Canton at Mansfield

The lineup is as follows:

MacLeod, C; Reynolds, P; Titus, 1B; Farwell, 2B; Capt. Keleher, SS; Whitty, 3B; Curtis, LF; Queenan, CF; Poore, RF.

Thomas Whitty, '40.

CROSS COUNTRY

1st row: R. Sweeney, J. Graham, W. Adams, F. Sweeney.

Cross-Country

On September 25, 1940, a group of ten candidates reported to Coach Robert Gibson. Richard Sarra was elected captain and Joseph Magee was elected manager. This being the first year cross-country was organized at Canton High, the boys did very well in running and they won one and lost but four. They competed with Braintree, Rockland, Weymouth, Brockton, and Milton. The team of seven was sent to the Massachusetts Scholastic Cross-Country Run which took place at the William E. Nickerson Field at Weston. Canton surprised everyone by finishing 13th place, out of 25 schools participating. The prospects for next year look very good.

The following have received letters: R. Sarra, J. Graham, J. Burgun, R. Jenkins, R. Sweeney, F. Sweeney, J. Magee, and D. Seaman.

R. Sarra, '40.

TRACK

1st row: W. Adams, J. Graham, F. Sweeney, R. Sarra, R. Sweeney, D. Valday, J. Burgun.

3rd row: R. Magee, W. Poore, R. Jenkins, T. Whitty.

Track

The Canton High School track team opened its first meet with Abington High School. The final score being:

Abington 51

Canton 17

Since then Canton has had two local meets with Walpole and Attleboro, losing both because of the superior track teams of these schools. Other meets are:

May 16 Hingham

May 25 Weymouth

June 1 Brockton

In the April 19th Road Race, J. Graham and J. Burgun received awards for the high school entries.
